

- Friendship knows no boundaries
- A true friend would never ask you to do something that is outside the law.
- If you were a real friend, you would help someone achieve his/her goal- no matter what.
- Friends stick together, "through thick and thin".
- "Secrets are lies, bad manners besides" - except between friends.